Chief Reese responded that he discussed the situation with both Mayor Duggan & City Administrator Sergeant. The consensus is that the current code is adequate.

Corridon asked about time limit constraints for a disturbing the peace rather than using noise violation. Chief Reese responded that Disorderly Conduct would be more appropriate. At the incident referenced at City Council meeting, negotiation continued behind the scenes for hours as residents planned to ring church bells over a weekend period. Chief Reese offered the opinion that if citation(s) are issued, it might ignite more activity.

These minutes are not official until approved by the City of Evansville Public Safety.

Lewis – would like to see it shut down within 5 minutes. Chief responded that is was a difficult situation, with many passionate viewpoints. He used the example of neighbors registering complaints over dogs or music playing too loud. . Lewis noted that Evansville Ford plays music at night. Chief will reach out to the business owner.

Becker asked for an update on Bill Lathrop’s question in regards to the family living in a vehicle in the municipal parking lot. Chief Reese explained Administrator Sergeant found an ordinance that supports resident’s rights on private property; however, the ordinance does not allow this to occur in the business district for more than 2 hours.

Morgan Katzenmeyer, EMT read the written monthly report covering the training, community outreach, updates in the department and staffing matters in the absence of Interim Chief Kleisch.
