City of Evansville Staff Report

Date Prepared: 03/01/2022

For Public Safety Committee on 03/01/2023 and Common Council on: 03/14/2023 and 04/11/2023

TO: Committee and Council and Members

PREPARED BY: Jason Sergeant, City Administrator

SUBJECT: Chapter 14 – Animals, Revisions for Administrative Consistency

Synopsis: Chapter 14 – Animals revisions were approved to be revised at the February 14 Common Council Meeting. However, the revisions were not consistent with formatting requirements of the code and placed into the format of a formal ordinance, Ordinance 2023-04.

Background: The Public safety Committee began discussing amendments to Chapter 14 last year. The revisions were discussed at a few meetings of the committee and referred to the Park and Recreation Board for additional considerations. Common Council reviewed the revisions at the February 14th Meeting. It was generally understood that the changes had been implemented following the council meeting. However, as staff reviewed the revisions it became clear that an official ordinance number and preceding language was not used. Additionally, some inconsistencies with paragraph and list numbering were evident.

Recent Actions: City Staff reviewed the changes council authorized at the February 14th meeting and integrated them into a formal ordinance. Additionally, formatting of lists and paragraphs as well as references to persons and positions were changed throughout for consistency.

Budgetary Impact: This will have no effect on the 2023 budget.

Looking Forward: Ordinance 2023-03 will incur a first reading at Common Council on March 14th and a Second reading on April 11th.

Public Safety Committee Options: Recommend approval of the Ordinance as written, amend the ordinance, or take no action.

Recommended Motion: “Motion to recommend to Common Council Ordinance 2023-03 Chapter 14 – Animals, of the City of Evansville Municipal Code”

Common Council Options: Approve the Ordinance as written, amend the ordinance, or take no action.

Recommended Motion: “Motion to Approve Ordinance 2023-03 Chapter 14 – Animals, of the City of Evansville Municipal Code”
